Dear Sooby Relative:

1801759

October 18, 1962

I regret the lack of material in the Harry Sooby family stories. Please send me some. And please send missing information and correct the errors in the genealogy. I will mail the additional information and corrections I receive in 2 or 3 months.

Although I wrote twice to England I received no answer. James found in 1945 that there is some information at St. Mary's Covenham, Louth. If any Soobys go to England I hope they will find the available information on the Soobys who lived there.

This genealogy ran into considerable expense of money and time although I have no figures on the amount of either. If you care to share the expense I would appreciate adonation. But KEEP THIS PAPER in your files whether you send a donation or not. I would have done it if I thought I wouldn't get a dime. I thank the following for donations already made to further this work: Clayton Henry, Betty Scruggs, and Art.

I did this work to bring the whole Sooby family together. How about really bringing them together with a Sooby reunion. I have received enthusiastic response from the few I have talked to so far. Soobys have been here since 1871. How about a 93rd anniversary of SOOBY'S-IN-AMERICA REUNION the summer of 1964, in Kansas, Nocona, Tex or some place else. Let me know whether you could come and the month: June, July or August, and where you want it.

As I compile this work I feel deeply indebted to many who made it possible. First of all I wish to thank Tom's son Fred's son John Harold Sooby who is now deceased, for making me aware of how big the Sooby tribe is, and for giving me the basic outline of the Thomas Nathanael Sooby family. He also informed me of the Henry Harry Sooby family, and that I could find some of them at Larned, Kansas. There I met Harry's son Tom's son James Harold Sooby (who now lives at Dallas). James gave me the basic outline of Harry's son Tom's family. From him I learned of the Bert Sooby family (Harry's other son). And following James' suggestion I wrote to "Mr. Sooby" at Holyrood, Ks. The postmistress there remembered the name from several years back and sent the letter over to Lindsborg, Ks. James Wilbur "Jeff" Sooby answered my letter and gave me the basic outline of the Bert Sooby family.

I am also very grateful for the considerable, valuable information I received from Tom's son Art, Tom's son Fred's children: Don's widow Thelma Helton, daughter Helene Rankin, son Clayton Henry "Judy" (and Judy's daughters: Kay Stevens, Beverly Brown, Judy Gronau), son John's children: (Marilyn Chism, John, Jr); Harry's son Tom Wm's widow May Coykendall, Tom Wm's children: daughter Dorothy Frazier, son Ben's widow Edith, (Ben's daughter Evelyn Galliart), daughter Frances Murphy, son Clarence Eugene "Sonny"; Harry's son Bert's former wife, Mae Eiden, Bert's children: daughter Vena Ballinger, son Harvey's widow Wilma, (Harvey's son Forrest and wife Virgilene); Tom's son Art's children: son George, son Joe, (Joe's children: Mary Ward and Don), son Harry, daughter Eva Smith and daughter Betty Scruggs.

I hope someone can locate Tom's daughter Carrie's sons Loren and Arthur. See Stories--Carrie.

A relative,

Robert L Sooby

Tom and Harry's folks--The Wightman Soobys--lived at Louth, Lincolnshire, England. They farmed 800 acres with a steam plow. A portable steam engine at one end of the field powered a cable that looped to the other end of the field to pull the huge plow through marshy ground.

BROTHER WIGHTMAN

Tom and Harry's oldest brother Wightman (named after his father)--was a tough hombre--a wild hare. He went to Australia and died in a gold-mine collapse. On a visit home from Australia his father criticized him for drinking and being such a wild cat.

THOMAS NATHANAEL

In England Tom won a silver cup (quart beer mug) and a toaster for winning a Volunteer Army training rifle shoot. He was the best shot at 2000 yards among 2000 riflemen.

Tom started to Australia to join his brother, Wightman who was still working in a gold mine in 1871. At Quebec, Canada, a doctor told him he had no business in Australia, that his lungs could not stand the extreme cold. The doc recommended he go to Kansas and homestead. He did, and picked the poorest piece of land in the United States, says Art. But first he worked for a RR at Cedar Pt, Ks, then rode a horse to Wichita and picked out a piece of land south of town. But before he got back to it someone else homesteaded it. So he homesteaded at Elbing.

Tom had learned a trade by sneaking out to the blacksmith shop against his parents permission. (It was not proper for English property holders or their children to do manual labor.) So besides farming he also ran a blacksmith shop followed by his son Fred.

Tom and Harry married Pilant sisters, whose father was Scotch-Irish from Ky. He and his sons--Kail, Charlie, Steve, Joe, Jim--were great tall men. Amanda took care of Kail for a few years before he died, because he had a sore foot.

Tom traveled back to England in 5 days and 4 hours on a steamer for a visit and returned on a sail boat 6 weeks later. The steamer, on its maiden voyage, disappeared on the return trip. It went thru the waves instead of over them, washing everything off the deck. Running with its hatches closed, tons and tons of water poured over the deck. On the return trip it must have dived into a wave too deep and never came up. He took the trip about 1885 or 86 because when he returned, his son Art (age 4 or 5) thought he was Dr. Foster. He came back on a 2nd class ticket and slept in a bunk stacked on the wall. One fellow picked off lice, dropped them on the man in the bunk below, who then hit the first one with a beer bottle causing him to spit blood and be taken away. Some passengers boxed every day. Among the many nationalities there were drinking, fighting and a dance every night. When Tom got home he was lousy as a pet coon and went out to the chicken house to change his clothes.

Tom's house was a converted school house with sliding door between the kitchen and the front room. This door had been an outside door in the school.

Tom always had a drop of water on the end of his nose. When he was past 80 years he was hauling stock corn fodder in from the fields, got overheat and a little water on lungs; died of pneumonia in 1918 or 20. His house was torn up by a cyclone and his blacksmith shop blew away yrs later.

HENRY HARRY

Harry came to America about a year or two after his brother Tom. (Tom came in 1871) and married Mary Frances Pilant--Amanda's sister. They had two boys--Tom Wm and Bert--and one girl--Mae. Then due to misunderstandings Harry left his wife, went to Newton and unloaded coal off RR cars for a local lumber and coal yard. Sometimes he helped his brother Tom put up hay and shuck corn. Harry left his bulldog with his brother and returned to England about 1895-97 to settle his parents' estate. He found he could not get the inheritance unless he stayed there. So he stayed there and married a Bessie. In the meantime Mary Frances won a divorce on the grounds of desertion and married Lewis Newberg. They lived in KC.

Harry's son Tom's son James stopped in England while in the Navy in 1945, called over to Louth and found that 2 old maid Sooby sisters lived at Covenham. He also found that Harry was buried at St. Mary's Covenham, Louth, Lincolnshire, England. Tom's son Art's son George's daughter Donna Lou was in England in 1955. From an old timer she stopped on a street in Louth she learned that there had been two old maid Soobys but that both had died.

FREDRICK WIGHTMAN

Tom's oldest son Fred carried on in his father's footsteps at the old Elbing home place and ran the blacksmith shop until he died. Next his sons Don and Judy ran the shop until Don died. Then Judy went to a Venezuelan (So Am) oil field.

MARY CAROLINE "CARRIE"

Tom's daughter Carrie married Bill Moore at Elbing, Kansas. They had two boys at Elbing. Then they moved to Redlands, California where Carrie died of TB about 1907. Bill also died there a few years ago. The Sooby family has lost all contact with Loren and Arthur. No one knows whether they are still living or not. If contact could be made with their aunt Mrs Austin Moore they might be located. Her last address was 2377 S. Patton Ct., Denver 19, Colorado. But she moved.

ARTHUR NATHANAEL

Tom's son Art wed Jennie Lynn Stratton, Dec 14, 1904 at Elbing. In the winter of 1913 he lived at Halstead and commuted by train via Newton and Whitewater to Elbing (25 miles) and worked for Fred in the blacksmith shop for $2.50 a day. No crops were raised that year. He paid the rent, raised Eva, Joe and George and had plenty of chewing tobacco. He shoed wild Garden City horses that used to run in the sand hills south of GC. One wild horse leaped on a fence, lit mid-stomach, and teetered over and broke his neck. While shoeing a front hoof, one horse took his back foot and knocked Art's hat spat against the wall. Then Art moved to western Kansas.

THOMAS WILLIAM

Harry's son Tom made several trips from Larned where he lived, to Colorado. Often they would stop in Garden City to pick up Art's son Harry. Tom's son Sonny remembers one trip with his father, Jim and Ralph when they stopped in Garden City in their 1929 Spokewheel Cadillac to get Harry and saw an "Old Joe" Indian mummy in front of Garnand's Furniture store. Tom was a good plumber.

MAE HELEN

Harry's daughter Mae married George Caskey. They had no children. In later years while living in Topeka (where she died) Mae became medically addicted to narcotics.

HERBERT SYLVESTER

Bert was "quite a teamster" in the oil field. He could hitch his team to a huge load, wrap the reins around the double-tree and talk the horses into pulling with every ounce of energy.

OTHER SOOBY STORIES

Art and family lived in Tom's yard in the cookshack when Harry was born. The next morning Art's son George was talking to a hired man of Art's and said, "Harry's only 5 years old."

Art and Moore were out hunting in a hayrack. Moore set his gun down. It slipped through the cracks between the boards and shot him in the chest. Art could see his heart beating in the wound, so he jumped down and ran for help.

Fred's daughter Helene remembers when the Art Sooby family came to visit. Fred played the fiddle; Art the mandolin, Myrtle the organ and then the piano. Meanwhile the cousins were having a high time upstairs with pillow fights, etc. Often Fred called them down as the plaster fell.

Dear Brother & Sister

I am very sorry that ~~as I have~~ not written to you for such a long time, that when I do so, it should be under such sorrowful circumstances as the present. I greatly mourn with you both ~~on your~~ loss & were there nothing further to look forward to, what a long sad time we should have. Soon we shall all, both here and in America, lay down our toils on earth--sometimes happy, often sad--to meet each other again in that glorious home where there is no more pain or care or sorrow. I often thought dear Carrie looked to have a delicate constitution, altho with every chance that after a few years she would grow out of it, and enjoy good health in years to come. But God (who orders all things right) saw fit to take her to himself. And though 'tis hard to part with those so near & dear, yet we know that in heaven she will have a happier time waiting for us all--some not long, others a little longer--but all some time or other, I hope, will be safely gathered in.

Dear Mandy must-not grieve too much. We shall soon see her again where God wipes away the tears from every eye. The Lord gives & the Lord taketh away; Blessed be the name of the Lord. My dear wife & I are living on a small grass farm in this village 6 miles from Louth and 15 from Grimsby. We sell milk, butter, eggs, vegetables & flowers, & are as happy as we can expect to be in this world. We have pigs & fowls, sheep & cows & always find some employment for our hands to do. Bessie has been to Grimsby Market every Friday for 16 years, except for 5 weeks when she was ill 4 years ago with a little boy (stillborn). We have had a great loss in dear old Alec Johnson. He was a dear old soul & we miss him still, very much. Helen lives in Louth & Mary & Alice & now visiting in Sutton-on-Sea with all their orphan bairns children. I have been to see them twice since they came, & Bessie is going to see them tomorrow if the weather is fine, though it is raining tonight.

It is harvest time here now. Crops are good & farmers are busy. I take it by the address on your letter you must be living in town. For you used to get your mail at Elbing. Very much love to Fred & Arthur. Should like to see them. Do you hear anything of Tom & Herbert. May wrote twice but never said her husband's name; just signed herself ("your loving daughter 'May'"). So that I could never answer it.

Hoping this will find you both in fair average health (as it leaves us just now) & promising to write again soon. With Bessie's and my own best love to you both your loving brother

Harry

Dear Tom

I was very pleased to get your letter this morning, telling me how well you are getting on. What a terrible operation you had to go through! You must have felt a great lot of pain while those tumours were gathering. And I do not wonder that you are so weak. But thank God that you are on the road to recovery. I am glad Amanda comes to see you and the boys. I wish I could pop in and sit by your bed a little while now and then. But my letters must be my representatives. You have clever doctors and a good kind nurse, who with God's blessing will, I hope, soon bring you back to health again. It is strange you should be in the midst of snow. We have had so little this winter, just two slight falls and a few frosty days. In fact, some nights have been so warm that I was glad to throw off my eider-down quilt. Very tiring as one has heavy clothing on. We have had a lot of rain, that farmers dispaired of getting their wheat sown in the autumn.

I have lots of flowers out in my garden making it look like spring. I saw a little lamb today for the first. I do reckon on getting back into the country again. I never liked a town. Things are so formal and people so newsy. I hope to move on the 28th of this month. Alice will come over from Oxford to help me. It is such a job and I am not very strong.

I expect you have nice books or magazines to read, if you are allowed. I have not sent any records to your home while you have been away, but will begin them again when you get home. How glad Amanda will be to see you improving so nicely. You would get a letter and a little book of hymns a few days back. I must not write more. With very much love.

Your loving sister

Helen Johnson

Kind regards to nurse Harvey and thanks for taking such good care of you.

My dear Tom

It is a very long time since I heard of you. So I must break the silence. I hope you are not ill again, which prevents you from writing. But trust you are at home, getting strong under Amanda's care and nursing.

We had been suffering from a month's drought with hot sun and winds from the east. Everything has been dried up. The outlook for hay and turnips has been very serious. But the rain has come and is coming so beautifully & gently. So all will be right. God is so good. He lets us see how helpless we are when we think ourselves so clever. And at the extremity He sends the blessings we want. We ought to trust him more than we do.

How are you getting on in the farming line! Of course after your severe illness you cannot do much work, "just potter around" as they say. All the world seems to have their thoughts on nothing but the coronation. The villages take their part in the festivities. It will be a grand time, and grand sights to be seen on Thursday. I do hope all may pass off well, and no catastrophe. When so many millions of people are gathered together and all full of excitement, terrible accidents do take place. But I believe there never was an event like this, coupled with so much prayer, that we may believe all will be well.

I like my little home here very much. It is so nice to be in the country again. This is a pretty village. My house is an old farmhouse. Very funny, but I have made it pretty inside and it is very comfortable. I have a nice garden, both flowers and vegetables. Harry is very kind in helping me with the latter. But he is not very well just now. He works very hard, always at it from 6 in the morning till dark. I am not sending papers now as you requested. You said it tired you to read much. Let me know when you would like to have them again. Most likely I shall send a coronation number. I hope you will send me a letter soon. I feel anxious about you. Much love to you all from your loving sister
